Find POCAHONTAS

and other characters

Can you find these people – and one dog – who are preparing for the long journey ahead?

John Smith

Governor Ratcliffe

Thomas

Ben

Hal

Wiggins and Percy

Lon

Chief Powhatan and his warriors have returned from battle victorious. Tonight there will be a great feast for all of the village to honour the bravest warrior, Kocoum. Chief Powhatan has just told his daughter, Pocahontas, that Kocoum has asked for her hand in marriage.

There is much to do before the celebration. Can you find these busy villagers? Do you see two animals who are having fun?

Pocahontas

Flit

Meeko

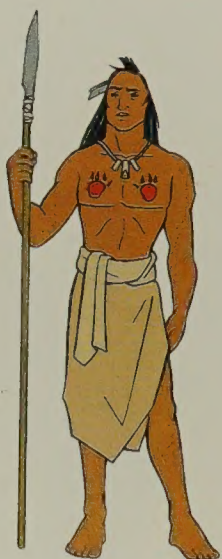

Nakoma

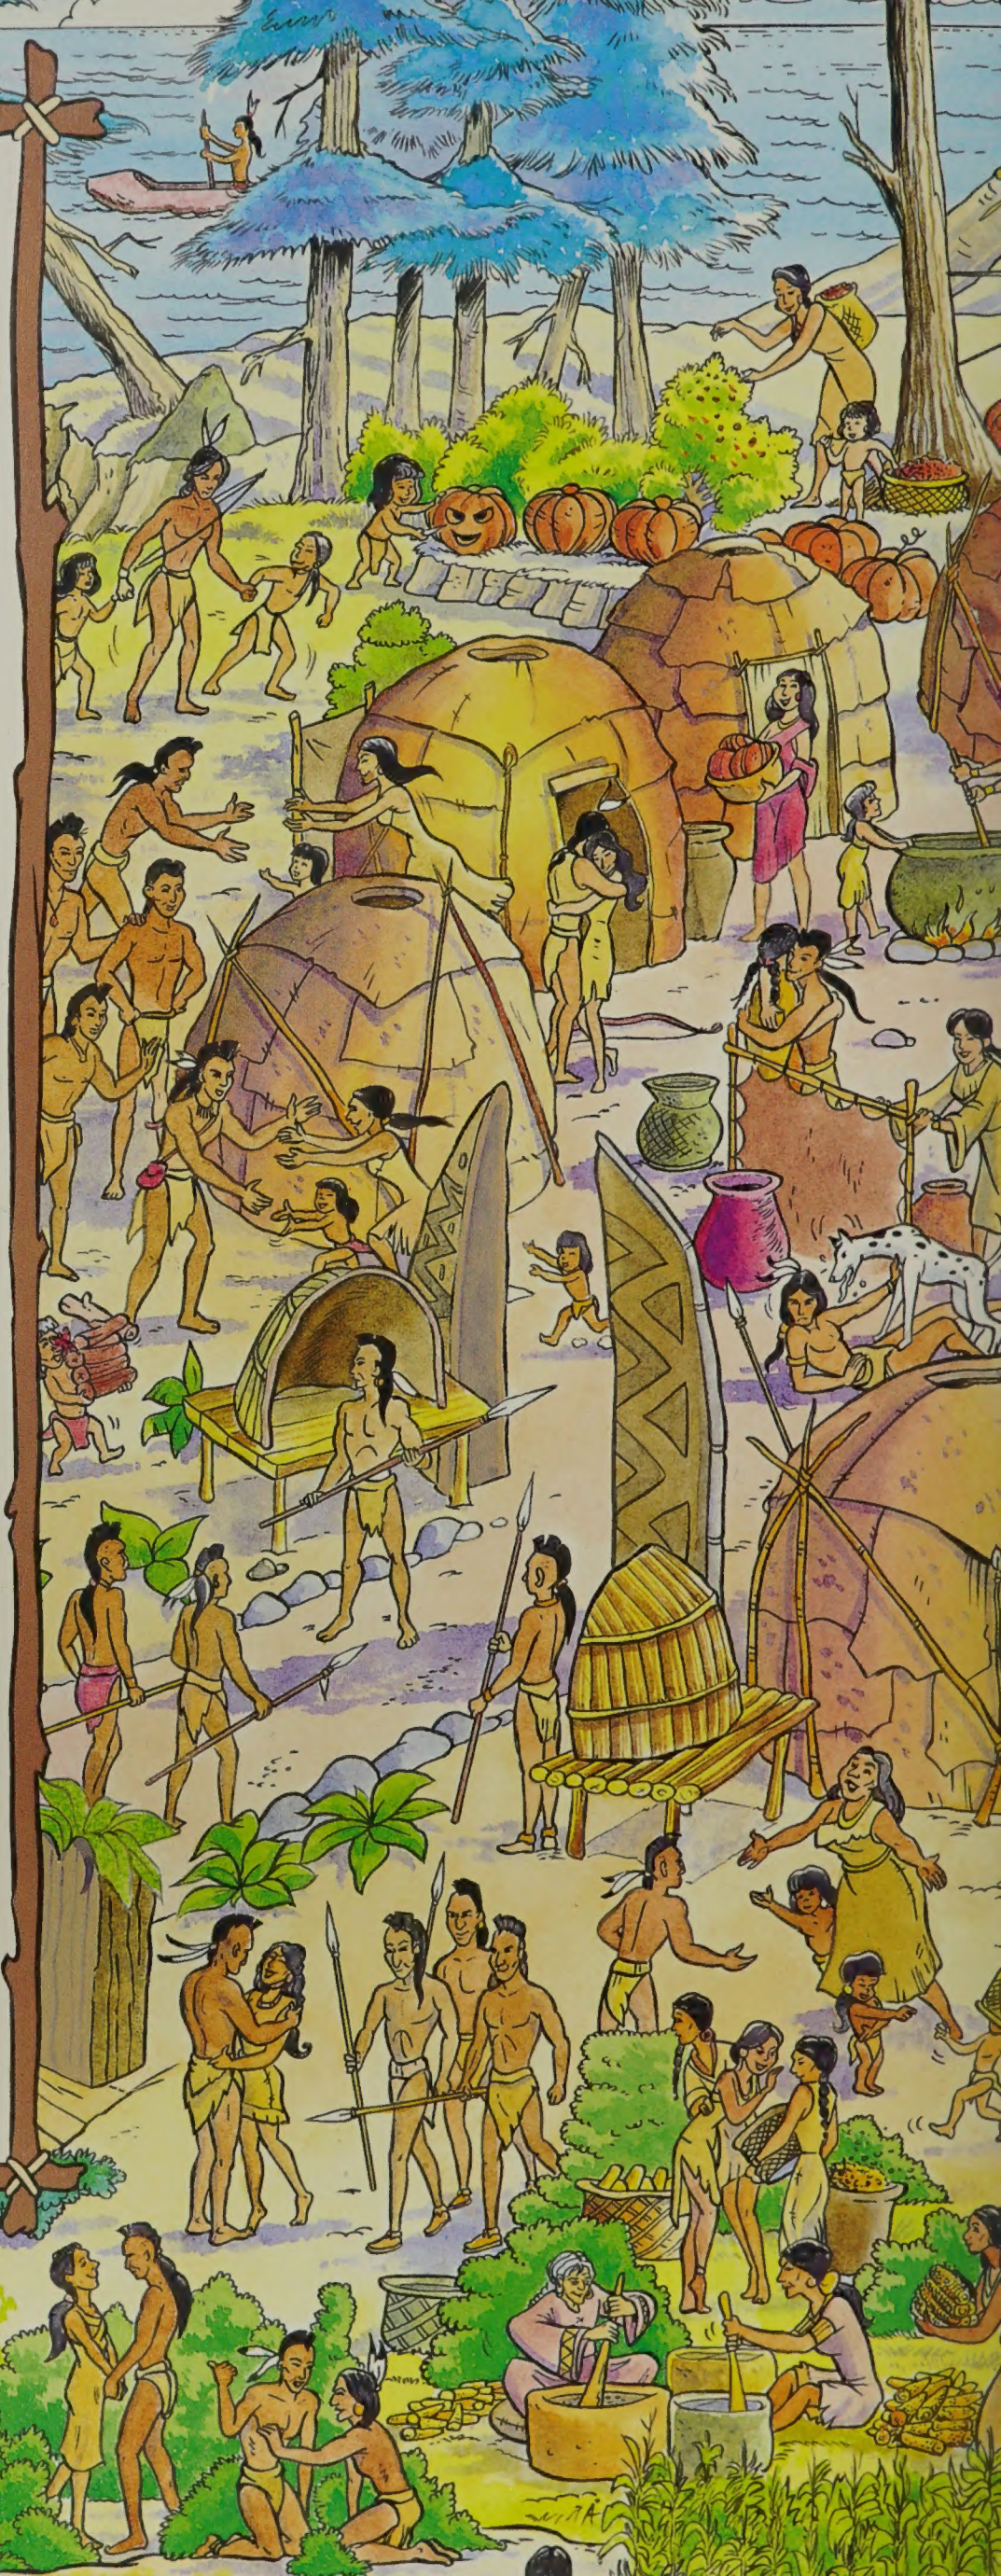

Kekata

Neenah

Kocoum

As Pocahontas paddles around the river bend, she wonders what the future will bring. Should she listen to her father and marry Kocoum? Or should she listen to her heart and follow a different path altogether?

Find these animals that make their homes along Pocahontas' beloved river.

This bear

This boar

This skunk

This deer

This heron

This fox

This otter

This rabbit

Grandmother Willow is a wise, ancient spirit. She knows things are not always what they seem.

Except for Grandmother Willow, Pocahontas and her animal friends, the Enchanted Glade seems empty. Look carefully and you will find these objects hidden in the scenery.

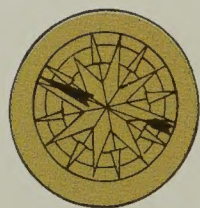

An arrow

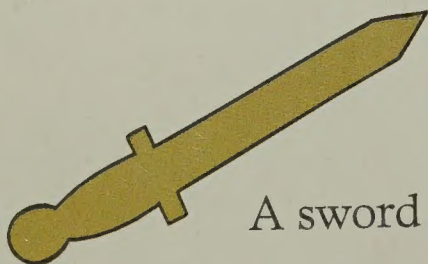

A goblet

An anchor

A compass

A sword

An hourglass

A peace pipe

Governor Ratcliffe has made his men dig up the New World earth and chop down trees until they find gold. He thinks it must be here. Why else would the Indians want to drive the settlers away? Can you find the gold in Virginia?

A goldenrod

A deliciously golden apple

An ear of gold

A gold tooth

A golden locket

A goldfinch

A gold leaf

Pocahontas tells John Smith that if he will walk the footsteps of another, he will learn things he never knew.

Watch as the swirling wind shows how everything is connected, and how life is a circle that never ends. Look for these things carried by the wind.

Can you find these footprints too?

So many things here are new and different to John Smith. He loves taking walks with Pocahontas so she can tell him the names of the plants in this beautiful forest.

Can you find these interesting and unusual plants that grow where Pocahontas lives?

Hickory

Milkweed

Wild strawberry

Sassafras

May apple

Poison ivy

Persimmon

Jack-in-the-pulpit

The winds of war are blowing and the drums of war are beating.
Look around Chief Powhatan's village. Can you find these warriors who have come to help battle against Governor Ratcliffe and the settlers?

An Ospanno
warrior

A Miami
warrior

A Mono
warrior

A Pequot

A Tottopottomoi warrior

A Toluca
warrior

An Acoma
warrior

Chief Powhatan's people have come with Pocahontas to say good-bye to John Smith and the settlers who are going back to England.

Some of the settlers and the Indians are exchanging gifts that show they are willing to live together peacefully. Look for these gifts of goodwill.

A painting

A necklace

A feather headdress

A feathered spear

A watch

A golden helmet

A horn

The Great Frontier Treasure Hunt

Help Pocahontas work out these name puzzles. You will have to look back through the book for particular scenes. The first question will lead you to the right scene. Then answer the second question and make a note of the initial letter of the answer. After answering all of the questions you should have twelve initial letters with which you can solve the double anagram. Happy hunting!

Where can you find two dogs fighting over a pair of trousers at a port?

In that same scene, find out what this magician is holding.

_ _ _

Where can you find a pumpkin with a face, carved for a village celebration?

In that same scene, what are these children making?

_ _ _ _ _

Find three tortoises on a log floating round the river bend.

In that same scene, what is this bear eating?

_ _ _ _ _

Where in the enchanted glade can you find a blue and yellow bird?

In that same scene, how many spots does this fawn have on her coat?

_ _ _ _ _

Where can you find a settler with toothache?

In that same scene, what is being dropped on this man's head?

_ _ _

Find the swirling leaves of the colours of the wind.

In that same scene, what river-dwelling, playful, furry animal is looking at this yellow fish?

_ _ _ _ _

From the twelve letters taken from the beginning of each word, you can make two six-letter words. Put the letters in the correct order and make the names of two of the characters from this book. Good luck!

Go back to the Jamestown settlement to find homesick settlers doing these things.

- ☐ Writing a long letter
- ☐ Gazing at a picture of a lady
- ☐ Crying
- ☐ Singing
- ☐ Picking flowers
- ☐ Carving a sweetheart's initials
- ☐ Sleeping

Go to where John Smith learns things he never knew. Can you solve these clues and then find the animals that the answers give?

- ☐ It can hop and swim, and has webbed feet.
- ☐ It lives in trees and stores away nuts for the winter.
- ☐ It moves along the ground and sheds its skin as it grows.

Go back to the Susan Constant as it prepares to sail away from the New World. Find people enjoying these 'new' things given to them by their new friends.

- ☐ A new cloak
- ☐ A new book
- ☐ A new game
- ☐ A new food
- ☐ A new musical instrument
- ☐ A new telescope

Take another nature walk with Pocahontas and John Smith and see if you can find these colourful birds in the forest.

- ☐ A scarlet-bodied bird
- ☐ A golden-throated bird
- ☐ A blue jay
- ☐ A black bird
- ☐ A green-winged bird
- ☐ Flit, a ruby-throated hummingbird

While paddling along the river, Pocahontas sees these baby animals. Can you see them too?

- ☐ A fox cub chasing a butterfly
- ☐ A sleeping owlet
- ☐ Twin bear cubs eating berries
- ☐ A fawn napping near its mother

Go back to Grandmother Willow's Enchanted Glade to see if you can find these hidden objects.

- ☐ A violin
- ☐ A snake
- ☐ A spoon
- ☐ A stopwatch
- ☐ A cup and saucer
- ☐ A bow
- ☐ A fork
- ☐ An ear of corn

Pocahontas isn't the only one who is watching her village prepare for war. Go back to the village and look for these animals who are watching and waiting.

- ☐ Meeko
- ☐ Flit
- ☐ Percy
- ☐ A fawn
- ☐ A fox
- ☐ A rabbit
